Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain, some of which will be heavy will slowly push southeastwards tomorrow giving much of England and Wales a spell of breezy and damp weather before it clears in the evening. Further north Monday will be a day of sunshine and showers with strong winds and a cooler feel than of late.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Cold to start on Tuesday then bright with sunshine for many, but windy in the north with rain. Some light rain will also arrive in the southwest later. Rain will clear to the southeast on Wednesday then windy for many with blustery showers and a rather chilly feel.
