Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Wet and locally windy weather across Northern Ireland, Wales, central and northern parts of England will feed north into Scotland on Monday after a bright start here. Elsewhere skies will brighten from the south, with scattered heavy, possibly thundery, showers developing for the afternoon.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Low pressure will dominate the weather in all areas on Tuesday giving showers or longer spells of rain, some heavy. It will also be windy in the northeast. Rain will become confined to the east and northeast of the British Isles on Wednesday as brighter and fresher weather moves into the west, accompanied by lighter winds.
