++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be cloudy with the odd spot of drizzle over western parts, especially western Scotland on Sunday, but elsewhere should be largely dry with a few bright or sunny spells, especially again in the south. It will be mild everywhere.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Generally cloudy but mostly dry on Monday though once again western parts could see some patchy light rain or drizzle. More persistent rain will edge south to reach the Midlands by the end of Tuesday with colder showery weather following to the north. Still mild and dry in the south.
