Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Monday will have some sunny spells but occasional showers are also expected. These will be heavy in places with a risk of thunder. A period of more persistent heavy rain is likely to occur across parts of Northern England during the morning, but this should turn showery during the afternoon.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Tuesday will be another day of sunshine and showers, although the showers should be mainly light in the south of England. Cloud and rain will spread into Wales and Southwest England during the evening, to give many parts a wet day on Wednesday. The rain heaviest in the south.
