LE MET MAG VA CESSER DE PARAITRE

C'est là une bien triste nouvelle: en 1994 The Meteorological Magazine, revue de vulgarisation et d'information générale du UK Met. Office, ne sera plus au rendez-vous chaque mois, pour des raisons apparemment 'politiques'. Il est probable que la mission de vulgarisation et de service public que remplissait fort bien ce célèbre magazine a dû être estimée non 'rentable' (les guillemets pour signifier que ce vocable mériterait dans ce cas précis d'être explicité en termes d'intérêt général, de connaissances pour le grand public, de culture et de civilisation dont l'apport ne peut être évidemment quantifié par les économistes).

Qu'il nous soit permis ici de rendre hommage à The Meteorological Magazine et à tous ceux qui ont servi la météorologie grâce à ses colonnes depuis 1866, et en particulier à M. Rodney Blackall, son actuel rédacteur en chef.
