++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and rain in the west will quickly move eastwards during the first part of the morning. Western Britain will then have a cloudy day with further showers or outbreaks of rain, sometimes heavy in southwestern areas. Northeastern areas will see persistent rain through the afternoon, while the southeast will be brighter later.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Tuesday will be an unsettled day with rain in Scotland and rain at times in most other areas. Northern England and Northern Ireland will be the driest and brightest areas. Wednesday sees more rain in the south, becoming heavy later, while northern areas will be drier.
