Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a fairly cloudy start in many eastern and central parts on Saturday morning. The cloud will readily break through the morning, leaving another warm and sunny day for most parts. There will however be a few showers across central Scotland.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
The warm, dry weather will continue across much of the United Kingdom on Sunday and Monday. Plenty of warm sunshine for central parts. It will be cloudier in the east and along coastal areas where it will also feel slightly cooler. There will also be a few showers across Scotland and northern England.
