Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Warm again with some sunshine, but a bit more cloud in places by afternoon with isolated heavy showers developing chiefly across west Midlands, Wales and northwest England, although most places will stay dry. Patchy mist and low cloud is likely near some northeast coasts where it will stay much cooler.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Dry for eastern parts with some sunshine and patchy cloud. Warm inland, cooler on east coasts, with mist and low cloud likely near northeast coasts. Cloudier further west with an increasing risk of showers, some heavy and thundery. East or southeasterly winds persisting.
