Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It is going to be a wet and windy day as a band of rain slowly makes its way eastwards across the UK. The rain will be heavy at times with strong winds, and should reach all but the far southeast of England by the evening.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

The rain should clear eastwards across England and Wales on Friday, but will linger over parts of Scotland. Brighter conditions will follow from the west, with heavy blustery showers. Another area of wet and windy weather is set to spread eastwards across the UK on Saturday.
