Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northern Scotland will see dry conditions with sunny spells. However, southern Scotland, northern England and much of Northern Ireland will be cloudy with some patchy rain at times. The rest of England and Wales will start mainly dry, but outbreaks of rain will develop through the day. Feeling cool in strong Easterly winds.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Wales and southern and central parts of England will be cloudy with rain at times. However, Scotland, northern England and Northern Ireland should remain mainly dry with sunny or clear spells through the weekend. Still feeling on the cool side in strong Easterly winds.
