Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be cloudy in the north of the United Kingdom at first with areas of rain, but will be generally dry and clear in southern parts. Showers are expected to develop in many places throughout during the day, becoming heavy and thundery at times, before dying away in the evening.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Further scattered and sometimes heavy showers are expected on Friday, slowly becoming less widespread later in the day. Rain will occur in the west on Saturday, becoming heavier at times later. Brighter, rather warm, conditions are likely in the east, but showers may develop later.
