++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and outbreaks of rain or showers over northern and western Scotland. A few showers also for Northern Ireland. The risk of some heavy and perhaps thundery showers for the far south and southeast of England, the showers tending to clear by the evening. Elsewhere, largely dry, warm and sunny.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Noticeably cooler and fresher into the weekend, with a westerly breeze developing. Bright or sunny spells on Saturday, although with scattered, perhaps heavy showers developing, largely for the north and west of the UK. Heavy and possibly thundery showers becoming more widespread on Sunday, though still some sunshine in between.
