++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunshine and showers will continue across Northern Ireland and northwest
Scotland, some of these will be heavy, then merging into a period of rain later.
The rest of Scotland and England and Wales will be mainly dry with bright or sunny spells, but with rain into the southwest during the evening. Winds light in the south breezier in the north.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

Rain will clear southern and eastern areas during Sunday morning, then most parts will have sunny spells and a scattering of showers. On Monday southern areas will be mainly dry and bright, but windier with occasionally heavy rain further north.
