++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northern and eastern parts of the UK are expected to be rather cloudy, particularly through the morning. However, some sunny spells are expected to develop later in the day. Here, it will feel less warm than recent days, particularly inland. Otherwise, it will remain sunny and very warm particularly in southwestern Britain.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

For the most part it will be fine and very warm, however some southern and eastern areas may be rather cloudy through Thursday. The far Northwest of Scotland is likely to remain cloudier throughout, with a chance of some light rain. This most likely later on Friday.
