Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most places should remain fine and dry tomorrow, with plenty of prolonged, warm sunshine. Patchy cloud may affect eastern coasts at times and it will feel cooler here as a result. Isolated showers are also expected to develop in places, especially over northern and southwestern Britain, and they may turn heavy in the far southwest.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

It looks like it will remain largely fine and dry during the weekend, although it may stay cloudier and feel cooler around coasts. Isolated sharp showers may develop at times in the north and west especially, but it will feel pleasantly warm in the sunshine.
