Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Fog patches over Scotland and eastern England, gradually clearing but remaining generally cloudy. Rain or showers, some heavy, across Northern Ireland, western England and Wales, also across the Northern Isles and northeast Scotland. Elsewhere, mainly dry with bright spells. Temperatures near average, rather cold where fog lingers.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

On Tuesday, scattered showers over west Wales and southwest England, remaining parts of England, Wales and eastern Scotland cloudy with light rain, drier and brighter later. Northern Ireland mostly dry with sunny spells. On Wednesday scattered showers in the east, elsewhere mostly dry with sunny spells once fog patches clear. Temperatures near average.
