Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Tuesday will be a day of sunshine and showers, with most of these across Scotland, northern and eastern England. Further south and west, there will be far less showers and indeed plenty of sunshine on offer. It will stay windy across the far north, but otherwise in lighter winds it should feel quite pleasant.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

Northwestern areas will often be fairly cloudy and breezy with occasional rain on Wednesday and Thursday. Elsewhere, it will be dry with plenty of sunshine and temperatures on an upward trend as winds swing round to the southeast, and it should feel warm, particularly by Thursday.
