Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
For Scotland, Northern Ireland, northern England and Wales, often rather cloudy with further spells of rain, but some drier and brighter spells as well with a few sunny intervals especially over eastern parts. For the rest of England, staying mainly dry with sunny periods and becoming very warm.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

On Tuesday, outbreaks of rain will move from the west across England and Wales, some very heavy and thundery. Showers and sunny spells elsewhere. Persistent rain in the far north on Wednesday, but for most of the UK, a mixture of sunny spells and heavy showers, some with thunder.
