++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloudy with outbreaks of light rain or drizzle at first in southeast England.
Elsewhere, very occasional light showers early on will die out to leave the afternoon dry for most places with a good deal of sunshine. Further showers are expected to spread into northwest Scotland and Northern Ireland during the afternoon.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
Continuing generally dry and settled, although with light rain or drizzle at times in the northern half of the UK. Further south, variable cloud should allow some good spells of sunshine, with brightest conditions in the south and west.
Mostly light or moderate winds, with temperatures near normal.
