Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Early rain, sleet and snow in eastern areas will be heavy in places but will clear away from all parts except the northeast of Scotland during the course of the day. Strong winds will lead to blizzard conditions on northern hills. Bright and breezy weather with sunshine and scattered heavy showers will follow from the west.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

It will be cold and breezy through Friday and Saturday with a mixture of bright or sunny intervals and scattered blustery showers. The showers will be heavy in places and also wintry in nature on the higher ground in the north.
