Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

On Monday it will be a tale of two halves across the UK, with Northern Ireland, Scotland, and parts of North Wales and Northern England seeing wet and windy weather. However for many southern, central and eastern parts it will be another fine day with plenty of blue sky and sunshine, and it will be feeling hot.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Into the middle of the week, it will be a mixed bag across the UK. Although it will be dry and bright through much of Tuesday and Wednesday, the skies will cloud over occasionally with outbreaks of light rain possible.
