++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be a northwest/southeast split across the UK with cloudy conditions across northern England and patchy outbreaks of rain for western Scotland and Northern Ireland. North-western areas will also be windy, especially along the coast. Conditions will be brighter for the rest of England and Wales with some warm sunny spells for most.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

It will be warm for most parts of the UK on Thursday and Friday away from eastern coasts where there will be an easterly breeze. There will be a little more in the way of cloud towards the northwest and the odd shower remains possible here.
