++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow: After a wet day today across southern parts, a much drier day tomorrow with sunshine for most of the country. However, a few showers to start the day across northeast Scotland, and cloud and rain will arrive across Northern Ireland, which will then spread to western Scotland later in the afternoon. Sunshine may turn hazier later across western parts.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Cloud and some rain at times for most parts during Saturday, but not before a mainly dry and bright morning across Scotland and Northern Ireland. Sunny spells and showers Sunday, with perhaps some cloudier skies at times in far western areas.
