at 1945 on Friday 28 January 2005

 Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Mainly dry with sunny spells across the northern and western UK.
Patchy rain over northern coasts. Cloudy with outbreaks of rain over central and especially eastern parts. Temperatures near normal, gentle northerly winds.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Generally dry with some sunny spells on Sunday. The thickest cloud will bring some light rain to Irish Sea coasts, Norfolk and northern and western Scotland. Sunniest in shelter from the northwesterly breeze. Temperatures around normal. Generally cloudy with the brightest conditions in eastern parts and southwest England on Monday. More cloud and rain across northern Scotland will gradually spread southwards. Temperatures around or just above normal.
