++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunny intervals and blustery showers at times during the day, the showers most frequent in the west with some heavy and with thunder possible. The best of the sunshine will be seen in Eastern England. A windy day, particularly in exposed western and southern locations, where gales are possible.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

Sunday will be mainly sunny for central and eastern parts of Scotland. Elsewhere, wet and windy conditions will prevail, with a risk of severe gales in southern areas. Sunny breaks and showers are expected on Monday, then wet weather again on Tuesday, mostly clearing England and Wales during the day.
