Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Tuesday will see early heavy rain over parts of northern England and Wales.
Otherwise the skies will be fairly cloudy with occasional bright spells and a few showers for much of England and Wales. Elsewhere though, it will generally be a brighter day.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

Meanwhile, Wednesday will bring sunny spells and scattered showers, mostly confined to the north. Thursday will see an increased chance of showers here, whilst southern parts will once again enjoy spells of sunshine. Persistent rain will arrive in the northwest by Thursday afternoon though, extending southeastwards overnight.
