++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Apart from isolated patches of mist first thing in the morning most parts of the United Kingdom will have a warm, sunny and dry day. Only the far north of Scotland is likely to have any significant cloud and there is a chance of a few outbreaks of light rain here.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Most parts remain fine and dry on Friday, although some western areas may become cloudier and there may be cloud and occasional drizzle on some North Sea coasts. On Saturday northwestern parts are likely to be cloudier with showers, some heavy, whilst the southeast remains dry with some sunshine.
