Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be largely dry and bright for many parts tomorrow, but occasionally cloudy with some scattered and locally heavy showers over northern and eastern England. The best of the sunshine will be over Wales and southwest England. Northern Ireland will turn breezier and a little cloudier later.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Tuesday should be largely dry and bright for most at first, but a weak band of cloud and rain will push into the west during the day. Further spells of rain or showers are likely for most during Wednesday, but with some drier and sunnier interludes as well.
