++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
A windy day everywhere with some rain and drizzle around. This is likely to be heaviest across Western Scotland with not very much in the south. Some brightness will develop this afternoon. Scotland and Northern Ireland will be wet and windy overnight with England and Wales mainly dry.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Rain over Scotland and Northern Ireland will edge into western parts of England and Wales during Tuesday. Showers following for Northern Ireland but dry and sunny for England and Wales, away from the west. Rain will be slow to clear eastern parts for England with sunshine and a few scattered showers elsewhere.
