Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A cold and frosty start across the UK. Wintry showers continuing across Scotland, especially in the northeast. Scattered wintry showers also filtering down through Northern Ireland, Wales and northwest England through the day. Elsewhere will be mainly dry with sunny spells. Westerly winds slowly easing through the day.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Another cold and frosty start on Saturday. Most parts having a cool but sunny day. Perhaps a few snow showers continuing in the north. Saturday evening through into Sunday will see rain move in from the west with increasing winds. Followed by blustery showers through the day on Sunday. Becoming slightly milder.
