

Yellow warning
Ice

Between
02:00 Sun 10 Nov 2019 and
10:00 Sun 10 Nov 2019

Icy stretches expected to form overnight across the east of Northern Ireland.

What to expect

- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Following Saturday's wet weather skies will clear allowing surface temperatures to fall below freezing across much of Northern Ireland by early Sunday morning.

Surfaces in the east will likely remain wet with ice forming where these remain untreated with some disruption possible during Sunday morning. Some freezing fog patches may also prove a further hazard, mostly in the south.

 Medium likelihood of low impacts
