Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
The central swathe of the UK will be rather cloudy tomorrow with patchy rain. Elsewhere though, there will be a lot of fine weather with sunny spells and it will feel warmer than today, although isolated showers will develop in the south.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Cloud and patchy drizzle will continue to affect parts of northeast England and southern Scotland on Friday. Elsewhere, there will be warm sunny spells, but also a few heavy showers in the southwest. On Saturday, we will see a good deal of fine weather with some sunshine, but heavy, perhaps thundery, showers will develop in the south.
