Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain across parts of Scotland will continue slowly southeastwards into northern England with fresher and brighter conditions following, but also occasional showers. Elsewhere it will be mostly dry with variable cloud, although the odd spot of rain remains possible. It will also feel warm in any of the brighter spells.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Outbreaks of rain will clear southeastwards during Saturday, with drier and brighter conditions following. Sunny spells are then likely during Sunday, but also one or two isolated showers. However northern areas are likely to remain unsettled. Nights will be chilly, but feeling warmer during the day.
