Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Tomorrow will be mixture of sunshine and showers, some of these turning locally heavy with hail and thunder possible. In the north, showers will be wintry, giving some snow accumulations, especially over higher ground. It will be windy throughout, with severe gales in places, making it feel rather cold.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Tuesday will be another cold and bright day with showers, turning wintry over high ground. During Wednesday it will become milder, with rain spreading in from the west affecting the whole of the UK. It will stay windy throughout, with locally severe gales over exposed sites.
