Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A mixture of sunshine and showers across northern parts tomorrow, with more persistent rain affecting the far north. Where the showers occur, some will be heavy and locally thundery. Further south, it will be mostly dry with variable cloud and sunny intervals. It will be a breezy day and feeling fresher for many.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

It will be cloudy on Monday for many southern areas with outbreaks of rain, these slowly clearing from the west later. Elsewhere, there will be sunny spells and showers, some heavy and perhaps thundery in the east. By Tuesday, it will be largely dry with sunny spells.
