Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Tomorrow will be dry and fine in northern and western parts of the UK with plenty of warm sunny spells. It will be slightly cloudier in central and eastern England, and the odd shower is possible here, though sunshine will predominate everywhere.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Western parts will be wet and windy from the start on Sunday. Rain and strengthening winds will move eastwards but they will not reach far eastern parts until nightfall, so these areas will have a fine day. Monday will be cloudy for most with some light rain. A few sunny spells are likely in the English Midlands.
