Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Breezy and fairly cloudy with further outbreaks of rain for Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England at first, turning drier and brighter with the odd shower at times in the afternoon. Sunny intervals and scattered showers elsewhere, becoming dry across the country through the evening.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Rather breezy and cloudy with some outbreaks of rain across much of the UK during Sunday, with the best of any dry and bright weather in the south and east. Similar on Monday, but with more in the way of dry and sunny weather for England, and becoming very warm in the far southeast.
