Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be warm and humid in the southeast allowing some potentially heavy and thundery downpours to be seen through the morning. Away from this after a wet start in the northwest a weakening band of rain will move east across the United Kingdom introducing bright, but fresher conditions.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
It will be a bright and breezy weekend in the northwest with blustery showers, some of which will be heavy and thundery with hail. Across the southeast of the United Kingdom it will be a dry and bright weekend although it will feel fresher and the nights will be chilly.
