Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Warm and dry for most of the UK again with plenty of sunshine, light winds, and some fair weather cloud developing during the day. Sea breezes will also develop around some coasts again. A little cloudier though towards the far northwest with increasing southerly winds into the evening.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

A change in the weather is expected during Tuesday, as a band of cloud and rain spreads eastwards, with cooler conditions following. However, it should stay warm and sunny towards the east until later. By Wednesday, breezy with sunshine and showers for most of the UK, some heavy with hail and thunder.
