Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
England, Wales and Southern Scotland will start the day dry, but also misty in places with patchy fog. This will gradually clear to give another fine day with sunny spells. The rest of Scotland and Northern Ireland will become cloudy and windy with rain spreading southeast.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Cloudy and windy on Friday across Scotland, Northern Ireland and the far north of England with outbreaks of rain. Further south it will be dry and bright but also breezy. The rain will gradually spread south on Saturday, with the north becoming dry and brighter.
