 Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow : Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England, mainly dry with broken cloud with bright or sunny spells and temperatures near normal although it will stay cold with fog persisting all day in some places especially across Northern Ireland and southern Scotland. Wales and the rest of England will be mainly dry but often cloudy and still rather cold although with a few bright or sunny intervals in places, these most likely in the west.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday: Becoming generally milder but staying mostly cloudy. Rain and stronger winds will spread to the north later on Monday.
