

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1945 on Tuesday 02 Feb 2010

++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain in southern parts of England and Wales will gradually spread northeastwards, turning to sleet and snow over parts of Wales, the north Midlands, northern England, Northern Ireland and southern and western Scotland.
Further northeast most places will be dry with some sunshine, although the far north of Scotland will have some snow showers.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

On Thursday another area of rain will move into southern and western areas, and it will become windy in the west. The rain will clear away northeastwards during Friday, turning to sleet or snow as it does so, with sunshine and showers following from the southwest.
