++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a breezy and cloudy start for the East along with parts of the Midlands, east Wales and southern England, with patchy hill fog and drizzle. However it will be brighter, but also windy, in the west. Through the afternoon it will become generally brighter, but the northeast will remain fairly dull and damp.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
After a cloudy start it will be generally sunny for most throughout Sunday and Monday, although the Northeast will remain fairly cloudy, with occasional drizzle. It will also be breezy at first, but winds will ease in the north by Monday.
