Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain across southeast England at first will clear in the morning leaving a dry day with sunny spells. Elsewhere, a mixture of sunny spells and scattered showers, most of the showers in the west with many eastern parts staying dry. Brisk west to northwesterly winds will make it feel quite cool.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Cloudy and windy with rain at times in the north but it will be exceptionally mild especially over eastern Scotland and northeast England on Wednesday. Mainly dry elsewhere but after some early bright or sunny spells on Tuesday, cloud will spread back from the west and persist through Wednesday.
