Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

Dry and mostly sunny and very warm after any early mist and fog patches have cleared. Patchy mist and low cloud is likely to affect some western coasts with sea fog in places as well. Parts of the northwest will be cloudier and breezier with a little rain and drizzle at times.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Fine and mostly dry on Tuesday, warm in the south, but northern areas will be cloudier and cooler. On Wednesday, the south and west mainly dry with sunny spells but feeling cooler, northern and eastern parts cool and breezy with sunny spells and scattered showers.
