++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be another fine day tomorrow with plenty of sunny spells, particularly across the south of the country, where it will be another warm day. Further north it will be a little cooler with more in the way of cloud but still some pleasant sunshine and light winds.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

It will turn a bit breezier into Saturday with the risk of showers across western parts of England and Wales, with rain pushing northwards across Northern Ireland and Scotland. Elsewhere will hold on to sunny spells. Sunday will be mostly dry and sunny for us all with temperatures picking up.
