Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain and drizzle across parts of northern England, Wales and southwestern England will become increasingly light and patchy during the day. Southern and southeastern England will be mainly cloudy with a few showers. Scotland and Northern Ireland will be dry with sunny periods once early frost and fog patches have cleared. It will be windy in central and southern areas.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

It will be predominantly cloudy and breezy across much of England and Wales with occasional and mainly light rain. In Scotland and Northern Ireland it will be generally drier and brighter, but with a risk of overnight fog and frost.
